 taunts of the enemies, and from the evil of what I did and from the evil of what I did not do, and from the vice that is known to my vision, and from the evils of my tongue and heart, and from the seminal diseases, from starvation and from becoming oppressor or being oppressed, from crushing any thing or being crushed by anything, from drwning and from being burnt, and from the mischief-mongering of the Satan at the time of my death. And I do seek Your refuge from dying as a fugitive of the Holy War or from dying of the venomous bites.

You are not such a god that we have moulded it up nor such a Fosterer whose memorization is temporary or of our inventiojn, nor You have any other sex partner of Your commitment, and we did not have anyone else as our god whom we would seek refuge besides You, and none has helped You in our creation by virtue of which we would seek refuge besides You, and none has helped You in our creation by virtue of which we treat him likewise and treat him as Your partner. You are Blissful and Supreme. Thus we ask You only. There is none worthy of worship except You. Grant me your forgiveness.

O Allah! I seek from You a promise, and You won't make me do against it that I do not tease any Muslim or trouble him or beat him or curse him, in that case You would change it into Mercy for him and make it a cause for closeness to You. O Allah! I seek Your refuge from skin erosion, adamance and disharmony bad morals, and the evil of the thing You know of. O Allah! I do seek Your refuge from the Hell and from such thing that would drive closer to it, whether views or actions, and from the evil of such thing that is in your control. And seek Your refuge from the evil of that day and the evil that is after that Day and from the evil of my desires and from the evil of Satan and from his assigning partner to you and from the evil that we cause to our lives or diverting it to any Muslim, or I do any such sin or fault that you wouldn't forgive, and from the narrowness of the space on the Day of Judgement.

I demand from You as per my right of seeker from You because beggars have right upon You, because You have granted prayers to any of Your creatures from land or sea - that You have granted their prayers and made it acceptable. O Allah! include them too in our good prayers, so that in demand from You and You pacifies us, and grants our prayers and overlooks our faults and theirs, because we have believed in what You have revealed and we followed Your Prophet (Salam). Thus note us among the testifiers.

O Allah! You are worthy of praise, and You are hearer of grievances, and grantor of petitions, and You are capable of helping. O Allah! we are not capable of refraining from sin nor capable of doing worship except by Your help. O Allah! I seek refuge out of Your pleasure and not in displeasure, and seek Your refuge from You. I can not praise You properly, You are worthy of that praise that You have Yourself given to known.

O Allah! we seek Your refuge from being waivered else to waiver, or misguide anyone, or oppress any body, or we are ourselves ever oppressed by any one, or we indulge in ignorance or being treated with ignorance. I seek refuge from misleading anyone or being misled by anyone. I seek refuge of Your Effulgence that has illuminated Heavens and removed the darkneses and has arranged aright the tasks of the world and the Hereafter, has averted Your displeasure and wrathfulness from being descended upon me. It is Your pleasure to reconcile You to me, I can not refrain from sin nor can do worship except by Your help. O Allah! I do seek Your care as the care is taken of a child. O Allah! I seek Your refuge from twin blinds, the waves of the ocean and aggression of a mad camel.

O Allah! watch me by Your eye which do not slumber, and cover me by Your power near which none can dare to approach, and be kind to me on account of that might which is superior to me, so that I am not ever doomed, and You are my hope. There are many such boons that You have conferred upon me and I have ben wanting in gratefulness to You on that account. And those many such distresses that You have put me to but I have been wanting in contentment on those occasions. Thus, O the Being that did not deprive me of your boons inspite of the want of gratefulness on my part, and O the Being that did not desert although I remained wanting in contentment on the distresses sent by You and O the Being who did not admonish me on seeing sinning.

And accept these prayers in favour of Mujaddid Ashraf Ali Thanwi, Syed Imam Al-Mehdi and all believer; men and women and all Muslims of all nations, present, future and past, And descend Your perfect mercy O Allah! upon the Holy Prophet (Sal-am), such mercy that be surpassing all bounds.

8. The Shajarah

A Complete List of the Saintly Line upto the Holy Prophet.

It is a good thing to read and to have the family-tree ("Shajarah") of your preceptor of Shaikh. This helps to develop a special relationship, affection and love for the preceptors of the Tariqah and the holy Prohept. This has, therefore, been in the practices of saints and their disciples of Islam. Reading after Fajr (morning prayer) or even once a week is good enough, after which recite Surah CXII (Al-Ikhlās or Purity) three times and pray Allah to bless their souls. This will strengthen your own soul and faith, and so will a similar recitation of Surah CXII and following prayer for your relatives and Muslim ancestors. This is an obligatory right of love which they appreciate and like, and which will be helpful to you as well in your salvation and in seeking Allah's pleasure.
